Norton. 1 Cloth(s), 2010. hard. Book Condition: New. "No Tremain novel is like any other," noted Library Journal in a starred review of this particularly dark story from Rose Tremain although they all do possess "her lushly descriptive settings, her deeply flawed but intensely interesting characters, and her imaginative plots." The author of The Road Home (winner of the Orange Prize), Sacred Country (winner of the James Tait Black Prize), and the Booker Prize finalist Restoration here gives us an electrifying novel, set in a lush but forgotten region in the south of France, about the trespasses of sibling love and disputed territory, and the devastating revenge of deeply embittered hearts. "The word trespass takes on multiple meanings in Tremain's emotionally searing novel. With his once-successful career as a London antiques dealer on an increasingly downward spiral, Anthony Verey decides to visit his sister Veronica, now cozily ensconced in the valley with her lover, Kitty. Disillusioned by the negative trajectory of his life and charmed by the feral beauty of the area, he decides to purchase a home nearby, causing friction between Veronica and Kitty. What appears to be the perfect property, the Mas Lunel estate, is haunted by the brutally abusive past of sibling-owners Aramon and Audrun. As these characters trespass on one another physically, emotionally, and psychologically, Tremain ratchets up the suspense."Booklist 253.
