Where s My Mom and Dad? (Paperback)

By Ivanhoe Chaput

Christine F. Anderson Publishing Media, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Having had many unexplainable brushes with possible tragic results, Ivanhoe s autobiographical journey questions the veracity of fate versus guardian help from the other side. Too many unexplained circumstances impose a belief that our lives are not simple occurrences of happenstance, but rather a supervised experience under the umbrella of a contract made with ourselves prior to our birth. As a young boy his relationship with God was one of innocent, childlike curiosity about where God lived and what he did for people through a Catholic healer named Brother Andre. His relatively religious childhood perpetuated an interest in spirituality, but his faith in secular religion faded into vacillating between atheism and agnostic until he witnessed the painful death of his mother. This is when the knowing aspect that she didn t die conflicted with his pragmatic methods of an engineering environment. Recounting three out-of-body experiences and an unexplainable circumstance that allowed him to look into a future event, his engineer thinking was that this is personal and tangible evidence that there s something else going on other than just physical embodiment....
