TRIUMPH BOOKS, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Like a fantasy come true, the love story of commoner Kate Middleton and Prince William, heir to the throne of England, puts a new face on an old tradition; a story concisely captured in this comprehensive and chronological telling. The charming, contemporary fairytale reveals that the famous couple met in college, weathered breakups and reunions, and lived together before taking their vows, making theirs a modern and relatable relationship but for the royal embellishments of the late Princess Diana's stunning sapphire engagement ring, the couple's elaborate wedding plans, and, of course, their future as King and Queen of England. Fans of the British Royal Family will cherish this insightful and well-researched account of the pair before and after they became one of the world's most-loved couples.
