Award winning television personality Todd Newton only had one career aspiration as a boy: to be someone television viewers enjoyed tuning in to see. From an early age Newton looked up to TV icons Johnny Carson and Bob Barker simply because they entertained millions of Americans by being themselves. Today the same can be said for Todd Newton. From interviewing the world's most famous faces on the red carpets of Hollywood to sharing life-changing moments with game show contestants as they win piles of cash, Newton has mastered the art of being the man you want to invite over for dinner or have a drink with. Join The Host with the Most as he openly shares his journey from a chubby Midwestern kid with a dream to becoming one of the most familiar faces on the air today. You'll find his stories to be as colorful as the tattoos that adorn his body.
