E2 2009n OCLC Number: (OCoLC)613333786 Subject: Predatory lending -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 As I look back on where things began to go wrong, it seemed to me that when the Olympic Committee, about 4 years ago, or maybe a little more, authorized a study that was called the McKinsey re-port, that came back and recommended that the Olympic com-mittee be run more like a corporation. I think that is where some of the people began to lose their way. The Olympic committee is big money, no question about it, and I think they have to have some good corporate practices there in order to manage it well. But it is also a non-profit and it is also a system of training young people. It is a little different mission, maybe a big different mission than a straight corporate board would do. And in my view, what happened after that was that there were at least a few people that began to develop what I call a cultural privilege in what I deem to be a real abuse of how money is spent. And some of the numbers that we got back, I mean it just, I couldnt believe some of the first ones we were getting back. But how much money was being spent that I considered wasteful or self-serving. In any event, Senator Stevens and I subsequently made a trip out to the United States Olympic Committee to talk to the athletes, the coaches, the management people were there. And there was an awful lot of newspaper print, as you might guess, and television attention before we...
