THE TRAINING SCHOOL QUARTERLY, VOL. 2: JANUARY, FEBRUARY, MARCH, 1916 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Training School Quarterly, Vol. 2: January, February, March, 1916 The study of foods is such a new subject in rural schools that they are not bound by traditions of equipment and methods of work that so Often prevent progress in town and city schools, but are, fortunately, free to work out their salvation in their own way, and a few favored ones are taking advantage Of this to make the work a vital part of the school life, shared in by all, instead of setting it apart for the Older girls, while the younger Ones and the boys look on with envy. In the ordinary One or two-teacher school it is not possible to do much along this line, for the teachers are already overworked; but the new consolidated rural schools with three or four teachers and a room for this work have a wonderful Opportunity to do some very practical work in foods, and at the same time to provide every day a hot luncheon, or at least one hot dish to the primary department if not to the entire school. A course in foods begun in the lowest grade and continued for eight years would give Opportunity for forming valuable food habits while the child is still young enough to be readily in?uenced, whereas, little habit formation can be accomplished in a short course, given to half-grown girls at an age when to be different is desirable, and the fact that they don t like this, and nothing on earth. Would induce them to eat that, is a sign Of superiority rather than of ignorance and narrow mindedness. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of...
