Forgotten Books, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Columbia Records: June No other musician has so translated simple gypsy melodies into such deep haunting such tempestuous tumults of rhythm. Before a detailed description of this great orchestral transcription. Special attention is called to the phenomenal clarinet work throughout played by Thomas H Prince s clarinetist. Formerly a world-toured soloist with Sousa s Band and a noted master of this brilliant instrument. Part I (based on an old Hungarian Folk Love Song.) All love s varied emotions are spelled in the muted mystery of the opening bars. Music beaten down. Down lower and lower by mighty brass chords; then the waltzing orchestra, the questioning expectancy of the brilliant clarinet cadenza; the flutter and palpitation of strings staccato: final joy of life. The wild speed of the dance and the first theme ends as it began. An echo in a vast underground cavern of sound. Part II. (based on a Hungarian czarda) Hungarian does not express in song, he tells in the dance. The gypsy czardas gave to Liszt themes which he turned into Bachanalian riots of Flung out by the brasses in this czarda is one of the most magnificent Frenzied themes in all Liszt - a theme carried throughout the movement in brilliant development.
