AGAINST THE NATION: ANTI-NATIONAL POLITICS IN GERMANY

Communalism Press. Paperback. Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Against The Nation: Anti-national Politics in Germany, Robert Ogman, Following the German reunification process in the 1990s, a new anti-national movement appeared in Germany that rejected all forms of nationalism, including the desirability of national communities and the existence of the nation-state itself. In Against the Nation, Robert Ogman covers the background of this movement - the rising Neo-Nazism, racist mob violence, restriction in immigration policies and citizenship requirements - and its urge...
