THE ORPHANS (PAPERBACK)

Two Peas Publishing, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . There was something strange about the man who was being attacked by the angry mob of villagers in the streets of Jerusalem that day. Timothy, an orphan living on the streets, couldn't put his finger on it before he was whisked away by Rachael, a kind villager. Rachael and her husband Samuel offer Timothy and his little sister Sarah a place to live and earn their keep, teaching them to be thankful to God for all they have. Months later, the new family takes a trip to see a mysterious man that Samuel calls Master. Timothy is stunned by the thousands in the crowd who are there to hear the man speak. This Master seems to be able to make the blind see and the lame walk. It is then that Timothy realizes that the Master is the same man he met among the angry mob in the streets of the village that day, a man who turned out to be a teacher and a miracle worker. The Orphans is a walk with Timothy as he goes on a journey from questioning who this God and Master is to finding a joy and peace he had never known.
