Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Clegg's Elocutionist; A Text-Book on the Art of Elocution, With a Full Scheme of Vocal Exercises, for Public Speakers, and for the Use of Schools and Elocution Classes The present volume is divided into two parts: the first deals with the principles of delivery; and the second consists in a number of literary selections, which are intended to serve as exercises of those principles. Proceeding to some extent on lines elsewhere laid down, I have enforced that side of the subject which it seemed to me could be most usefully enlarged upon, namely, the literary. This appears to be an aspect too much neglected, in favour of mere rules of speech, by many treatises on Elocution. Aspirants to public speaking have been considered in a special chapter, which should in all instances be supplemented by the one on Voice Training, and the one on Gesture. Elocution classes, such as meet in various Public Institutions, will no doubt find the specimens of Prose and Verse well adapted to their requirements, and to students of these...
