

Hebrew Books: 10th Sympony (Paperback)

By Rafi Toren

On Demand Publishing, LLC-Create Space, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: Hebrew . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Tenth Symphony, the first story in the collection, evolved in 2007. It speaks, in retrospect, about the author's year as regional Musical Director of the Sharon District but quickly takes off into the realms of fantasy, and during the same year wins second place in a Science Fiction competition sponsored by the iconic Cinematheque, Tel Aviv. Toren began his tradition of writing Sci-Fi stories during the summer, five of which appear in this collection. The stories are based on universal concepts which allow the any reader access to his work. Beyond praise for music and its ability to transform the soul, the stories also portray music's ability to connect between people as well as reflect on the ability of man to be optimistic. Rafi Toren does not play around with his readers, he demands that they get into his head, close gaps, focus, go back and reread a paragraph. This is definitely the work of a writer with talent. Rafi Rotholtz - editor Rafi Toren is a musician who has produced large scale productions and movies all over...
