

Courting Rendition (Paperback)

By Maggie Allder

Troubador Publishing, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. A sleepy Hampshire cathedral city, a remote cottage in centralâ Wales and a small town in the forests of east Texas - these are not locations where one might expect to find social unrest, political intrigue, or calculated injustice. Set shortly in the future, in 2030, Courting Rendition takes the form of a journal which follows the life a woman as she moves from the predictable and the pleasant into subterfuge, confusion, catastrophe and, perhaps, redemption. A seemingly `ordinary woman, she belongs to a community which looks for an inner light which is as tangible and as real as the Anti-Terrorist Taskâ Force. This gripping novel has a profound and open spirituality underlying it - giving a dimension to the story that is both unusual and convincing. Both exciting and challenging, Courting Rendition provides a new perspective on integral social and political issues. Inspired by authors such as Chaim Potok and Robert Harris, the author compares her work to a variety of books, including I Capture the Castle by Dodie Smith and The Secret Life of Bees by Sue Monk Kidd. Courting Rendition will appeal to...
