With unemployment at its highest levels, and recession-hit England facing war, a group of citizens are thrown together in a Government-sponsored camp that allows residents to concentrate on looking for employment. However, Rob Walker realises that the camp is not as it initially appears. Leading a daring escape, he and his comrades discover that certain individuals are preventing the countrys wheels of progress from turning to achieve their own goals. The group decides to take the law into their own hands in order to shake the country out of its apathy and become devils in order to restore their ideas of Heaven. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
