

Writing Philosophy: A Guide to Professional Writing and Publishing

By Richard A Watson

Southern Illinois University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Writing Philosophy: A Guide to Professional Writing and Publishing, Richard A Watson, Richard A. ("Red") Watson has published fiction, general nonfiction, and scholarly books. His essay "On the Zeedijk," about Descartes in Holland and first published in "The Georgia Review," was the lead essay in "The Pushcart Prize XV, 1990/1991: Best of the Small Presses." Red knows writing. He also knows academe and has written "Writing Philosophy" as a kind of survival manual for undergraduates, graduate students, and junior faculty members in philosophy. Also helpful to those in the humanities and the social sciences, the book is a guide to the professional writing and publishing that are essential to an active participation in the conversation and discussion that constitute these professional fields. To the extent that publication is the crucial factor in tenure decisions, it will help the beginning scholar meet tenure criteria. Despite the importance of the oral tradition in philosophy and the influence of the dialogue, many philosophical points are so intricate and complex that they can be advanced, followed, and criticized only if they are written as stepwise arguments for study and contemplation at length and at leisure.
