J The funeral services of the Reverend John Henry Salisbury, D.D., late Pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Trenton, N. J., were held at half-past two o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, January 14th, 1891. Prayer was offered at the house by the Reverend Jacob Cooper, Professor of the Greek Language and Literature at Rutgers College. The services at the Church were attended by a large number of clergymen and others from abroad, as well as by the members of the congregation and other citizens of Trenton. The next day the body was taken to Catskill, New York, for interment, in a special car chartered for the occasion.
