It is a pleasure to refer to the announcement of The Youth s Companion in this number of The School Arts Book and to suggest that every subscriber to The School Arts Book include it for the coming year. No better return for $3.25 can be offered. From a Normal student in the West: Dear Mr. Bailey: --I want you to know how much we appreciate the Arts Book in the Normal Department here. The bound volumes, kept in the library are in constant use, and the current numbers sometimes find themselves in class. In our work of planning courses they are the greatest help in the way of good suggestions. So you see it is not only those who are teachers but the future teachers who are helped by The School Arts Book. With best wishes for the Book, Sincerely, D. E. C. From a public school teacher in the East: My dear Mr. Bailey: --Hereby I begin to pay my intellectual and spiritual debts. Will you please accept my very heartiest thanks for the inspiration your School Arts Book has brought me each month this year? It is all helpful, --cover, advertisements, illustrations, contributed sense and nonsense, and the editorials. With best wishes for Editor and Book, Sincerely yours, H. A. P. R. From a Special teacher in Canada: Dear Mr. Bailey: --It would be a difficult matter to find a magazine more uniformly helpful and...
