

Sentenced to Life

By Kay Baker

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 206 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Kathy Williams looked every part the successful career woman. At a time when women were just emerging into high-profile jobs, she had it all-an impressive title, a wonderful husband, beautiful children, a good home. But it was all just a facade. In reality, her salary wasn't enough to maintain her family's comfortable lifestyle, and they had to keep up with the Joneses, after all. As director of investment banking for AMA Global Investments in Manhattan, New York, she had access to clients' funds, what amounted to millions of dollars. Opportunity was in her hands; the door was wide open for financial gain. She gave in to temptation, to the devil's whisperings. Just a few dollars wouldn't hurt. They wouldn't even notice. They have millions of dollars in their account. They don't even know what to do with their money. Taking a little here and a little there and moving some numbers around, Kathy was able to pad her own salary. But it wasn't long before she was caught and...
