The Story of a Brief Marriage

By Arudpragasam, Anuk

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Granta Books | An unforgettable literary debut set during the final days of the Sri Lankan civil war, portraying two people's struggle to create a human relationship when being human has become impossible | Dinesh is a young man trapped on the frontlines between the Sri Lankan army and the Tamil Tigers. Desensitized to the horror all around him, life has been pared back to the essentials: eat, sleep, survive. All this changes when he is approached one morning by an older man who asks him to marry his daughter Ganga, hoping that victorious soldiers will be less likely to harm a married woman. For a few brief hours, Dinesh and Ganga tentatively explore their new and unexpected connection, trying to understand themselves and each other, until the war once more closes over them. Told in meditative, nuanced and powerful prose, this shattering novel marks the arrival of an extraordinary new literary voice. | Format: Paperback | Language/Sprache: english | 268 gr | 198x175x19 mm | 208 pp.
