

Two Voices, One Story (Paperback)

By Elaine Rizzo, Amy Masters

Clink Street Publishing, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Two Voices, One Story This is the true story of a girl called Amy and the English mother who adopted her from an institute in China when she was just a baby. It s a story about love, family and identity; and the unbreakable bond between mother and daughter. When Amy came to be adopted in 1999, China s then notorious one-child policy had given rise to a generation of missing girls. Amy was one of them, destined to life in an orphanage if she was lucky enough to survive. That is, until she was adopted by a loving British couple who were desperate to give her the home she deserved; Elaine and Lee. In this moving autobiography, Amy and Elaine chart their own personal experiences of their shared adoption story. Theirs is not a political account, but one which is open about the challenges of adopting a child from a foreign country and the long journey that follows; from China to the UK and from infancy through to adolescence, as Amy and her new family learn and grow together. Now...
