Excerpt from Report of Johnstown Flood Finance Committee It having been proposed by the Pittsburgh Relief Committee to furnish portable houses, fitted up as comfortable homes, upon condition that the Finance Committee would receive and distribute the same properly, on June 17th this offer was accepted, and a Committee was appointed to act in conjunction with General Hastings and Dr. Benjamin Lee to determine the location in which houses might properly be erected Where applicants had not approved sites of their own. A form of application was approved and ordered to be printed, and Messrs. H. W. Storey, Thomas Matthews, and B. F. Speedy were employed to act as a Committee to take applications for the houses, to attend to the receiving and delivering of them, with power to employ assistants, etc. Mr. Speedy being in ill-health was unable to serve, and his place was filled by D. H. Kinkead. Mr. Matthews retired after serving for a period of one month, and this onerous and unpopular duty was faithfully discharged by Mr. Storey and Mr. Kinkead and their assistants under...
