PBS Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 304 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. The Spirit King weaves Dreams into Destiny and Destiny into Heroes! Adventurous, psychological, spiritual and poignant, this book will take you on a provocative and magical journey of the mind, body, and spirit. How much of our reality is only fantasy, and how much fantasy can become reality The Spirit King A Destiny Awakens, is a coming of age story about destiny, compassion, magic and dreams! Like Luke Skywalker in Star Wars, Eragon, Frodo Baggins in Lord of the Rings, or Jake Sully in Avatar, Thane Winstrom is led on a journey of discovery, both in real life, as well as in his dream world, weaving dreams and reality back and forth, influencing each other along the way. Thane had a curious feeling about this particular summer. He felt something was going to happen that would alter his life and he was right! The story begins in Los Angeles in the nineteen eighties. Our hero's life is changed after a near death experience, when he glimpses a touch of the other side, coming to learn that there is more to life than we know both on Earth and after death. Spiritual, compassionate, loving and profound Thane's near death experience allows him to dream every night. Both in real life, as well as in his dreams, Thane begins connecting to nature, sensing energy coming from the Earth. This energy is personified in his reoccurring dreams when he becomes an Arthurian heroic character named Sarghon, destined to save his world from a dark and powerful tyrant King. Surrounded by a sentient forest, mythical beasts, and new friends, Sarghon (Thane's dream alter-ego) sets off on a fantastical adventure. As Thane evolves and grows in the real world, so does his dream...
