The young bloods of the City practised an amusing trick known as Lobsterfuhang first move was to saunter into the grill room. Upped with a fish-hook to which a ball of string was attached and examined the lobster attractively displayed to await the order of the patrons. surreptitiously at the fish-hook to a fine specimen. The joker would toss the end of twine through the open window near by. Proceeding to the street. He would give the ball two or three kicks. Thus repelling it to a safe distance for the final operation. Where he would seize the string and thereby draw the selected lobster through the window. To the huge surprise of occupants of the Grill Room who witnessed the departure of the crustacean. Supposedly under its own power.
