With her grandfather, she lives a solitary life in an isolated estate home. Trevor lives his life in front of the cameras. He's one of the top super stars of Hollywood and he's on the brink of a burn out. Before he takes on another film, he escapes to a secluded place to get his mind straight. He didn't expect to have his entire way of thinking turned upside down by his lovely, yet blunt hostess. As the walls between them come down, Trevor allows Kelly to review his next project, a movie that hailed the negative side of BDSM. The subject hits far too close to home and her confession changes his perspective. Now that Trevor has seen things through Kelly's eyes, it sets him on a new path, one he can't reveal until the time is right. But she harbors a secret of her own. Can their love survive the truth?
