Excerpt: . . . 11 1 TESTIMONY OF DENNIS SMITH, DIRECTOR, CENTER FOR MEDICAID AND STATE OPERATIONS WITH Mr. S. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman and Senator Carper, for inviting me today. I appreciate the opportunity to appear before the Subcommittee to discuss the topic at hand because it is very timely with the passage of the Deficit Reduction Act. And there are a lot of exciting things in there. For the first time, as Inspector General Levinson described, we have a dedicated stream of funding for program integrity in the Medicaid program, and we believe that its very important. I think that part of the message that I want to carry today is that we are on the right path. Were on the right road. In terms of combating fraud and abuse in the Medicaid program, more is better. And we are doing more reviews. The States are doing more reviews. And Ill be happy to provide some of the progress to date. To be fully successful in the area of program integrity requires activities both on the front end and the back end, both in prepayment and post-payment. On the front end, our responsibilities, in terms of our guidance to the States: Reviews of State plan amendments; the investment - the substantial investment - that weve made in modernizing State computer systems, which were now spending about a billion and a half dollars on. Each of the State computer systems - what is called...
