Excerpt: .them he was rebuked and warned not to repeat the like again as it was out of order; your place is to speak to the people not to preach to them. Our spiritual instincts, we well remember, were greatly offended with this decision, and we felt that it was the kirk session that was out of order and not the young man. The question is not, says Mr. Darby, whether all laymen are individually qualified; but, whether as laymen they are disqualified, unless they are what is commonly called ordained. But I confine myself to a simple question--the assertion that laymen ought not to preach without episcopal or other analogous appointment. My assertion is, that they are entitled; that they did so in scripture--were justified in doing so, God blessing them therein; and that the principles of scripture require it, assuming, of course, here,...
