

The Many Apparels of Women (Paperback)

By Maxine Henry

Xulon Press, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Many Apparels of Women was birthed through a vision of Maxine Henry to train, educate, encourage, motivate and inspire Women to seek excellence, and know their worth. We are mothers, homemakers, wives, nurses, doctors, lawyers, caretakers, military members, city, federal, state and national workers; and busy Church Ladies, to name a few. Women have many roles, and it is important for us to know who we are on the inside. Across the globe women suffer from identity crises, which reflect their performance at home, work, and church. Mother Henry loves to see women progress in the church, and to mentor successful people. Her goal is to help women of the world know their value, while exploring it appropriately and gracefully. Her initiatives are centered on, doing and being the best that you can be. She is a well versed educator in, Women and Family Matters. Maxine Henry, affectionately known as Mother Henry, born in Mississippi, and later moved to Illinois where she calls home. She is a widow, and was married to Charles Henry, Jr., for 54-years. She is retired, and devotes her...
