

Facets: Homespun Poetry and Photography of New England (Paperback)

---

By Julyn S Pride

June L. Mita, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In her first published book of poetry, Julyn S. Pride has created an artistic collection of poems and photography about the people and places of New England. The short vignettes and stories describe in beautiful detail poems on motherhood, aging and nature and the joys and losses of our faceted lives. The 45 black and white photos chosen as a visual embodiment of the poems reflect the seasonal New England landscape, but especially that of Connecticut. Facets is a concept collection she has termed homespun poetry because it gathers the warmth of family, history, and generational presence in New England. It is a concept because it is written in sections that reflect some facets of the chosen chapter. The work is interconnected and flows through a natural passage of life experiences. All the poems come from the New England landscape, but especially that of Connecticut. Several use Tolland, Connecticut as a backdrop for place and perspective. The topography of Tolland is filled with rolling hills. There are marshes, rivers and lakes and forested trails and parks. It is also a place of farms,...
