Studentessa Matta, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Edition ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Waking Isabella is a story about uncovering hidden beauty that, over time, has been lost, erased, or suppressed. It also weaves together several love stories as well as a few mysteries. Nora, an assistant researcher, is a catalyst for resolving the puzzle of a painting that has been missing for decades. Set in Arezzo, a small Tuscan town, the plot unfolds against the backdrop of the city s antique trade and the fanfare and pageantry of its medieval jousting festival. While filming a documentary about Isabella de Medici--the Renaissance princess who was murdered by her husband--Nora begins to connect with the lives of two remarkable women from the past. Unraveling the stories of Isabella, the daughter of a fifteenth-century Tuscan duke, and Margherita, a young girl trying to survive the war in Nazi-occupied Italy, Nora begins to question the choices that have shaped her own life up to this point. As she does, hidden beauty is awakened deep inside of her, and she discovers the keys to her creativity and happiness. It is a story of love and deceit, forgeries and masterpieces--all held together by the allure and intrigue of a beautiful Tuscan ghost.
