This was sent after meeting Mr. Lambard in New York, in which he claimed and alleged that Mr. Blair and I1105 could give to him a subscription to the stock; I think I offered to give him some of my stock. He would not take my stock. He did not want to get it out of me, he wanted it to come out of the Company. After going to Washington, Mr. Blair wrote to me. Mr. Field objected to what he wrote. Q. Go on with the rest of the statement. In consequence of what Mr. Blair wrote to you, then what A. Mr. Lambard at that interview said the Boston parties 1106 were willing he should increase his subscriptions, and if..
