The Qualities and Characteristics of a Good and Great Leader: Book Published for Africans (Paperback)

By Rev Francois Kara Akoa-Mongo Dr

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . According to this author, this book should be ranked second after the Bible in importance and guidance for Africans who feel called to bring changes in any level of African living and societies. These should hold on their both hands the Bible and this book. Africa needs individuals who believe in themselves, who breathe integrity, honesty, visions, wish to collaborate and have positive influence over others, dream dreams, have excellent communication skills in order to bring to light wonderful social projects God have given them, motivating resources, promoting and discovering talents, receiving support from others, and doing what other civilized and developed countries have done and continue to do without selfish ambitions and tribalism. Why we, Africans, can't build our countries, conjugate our efforts and talents, create sustainable economy, exploit our resources and transform our societies just as Europeans, Americans, Japanese, Chinese, and other developing countries are doing today? We should not reinvent the wheel when the wheel has been or was invented some millennia ago. If we really need the wheel, let's buy one or learn how to...
