Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Random House US | A Flavia de Luce Novel | It&apos;s Christmastime, and twelve-year-old Flavia de Luce is sailing home to England. But she is greeted with unfortunate news: her father has fallen ill. Only too eager to run an errand, Flavia delivers a message to a reclusive wood-carver--whose body she finds hanging upside down. His cat shows little interest in the disturbing scene. Flavia is energized at the prospect of a new investigation. | NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER - Hailed as "a combination of Eloise and Sherlock Holmes" by The Boston Globe, Flavia de Luce returns in a much anticipated new Christmas mystery from award-winning and New York Times bestselling author Alan Bradley. In spite of being ejected from Miss Bodycote&apos;s Female Academy in Canada, twelve-year-old Flavia de Luce is excited to be sailing home to England. But instead of a joyous homecoming, she is greeted on the docks with unfortunate news: Her father has fallen ill, and a hospital visit will have to wait while he rests. But with Flavia&apos;s blasted sisters and insufferable cousin underfoot, Buckshaw now seems both too empty-and not empty enough. Only too eager to run an errand for the vicar&apos;s wife, Flavia hops on her trusty bicycle, Gladys, to deliver a message to a reclusive wood-carver. Finding the front door ajar, Flavia enters and stumbles upon the poor man&apos;s body hanging upside down on the back of his bedroom door. The only living creature in the house is a feline that shows little interest in the disturbing scene. Curiosity may not kill this cat, but Flavia is energized at the prospect of a new investigation. It&apos;s amazing what the discovery of a corpse can do for one&apos;s spirits. But what awaits Flavia will shake her to the very core. Praise for Thrice...
