This building was authorized by Congress in 1890, and the site was Post Office, purchased in 1891 at a cost of $650,000. The designs were made in the office of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury, and executed under its direction to the completion of the building in 1899. In style it is modified Romanesque, surmounted by a lofty, square clock tower. The principal material is granite from Fox Island, Maine, with steel columns and beams for the interior framework. The finish is in marble from Tennessee and Vermont, varied by Red African and mottled Italian marbles, with quartered oak and mahogany for the woodwork. The building measures 305 feet long by 200 feet wide, and encloses a court, roofed over by a skylight 180 feet long by 99 feet wide. An...
