Naglee of His Command of the District of Virginia: With an Appendix Containing the Correspondence Between Gen. Naglee and the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Portsmouth, Referred to in the Report Colonel: I would respectfully submit the following report: - In obedience with the orders of Major-General Foster, I assumed command of the Department of Virginia, 7th Corps, on the 25th day of July last. On the 28th of July, I addressed the communication marked A, hereunto attached, to the most prominent citizens of Princess Anne, Norfolk, Currituck, and Camden Counties, which was promptly responded to by letters marked B and C, and at the same time in person by deputations composed of Union and disunion men, non-combatants from within our lines; and it was determined that so long as they should take no active part against the Government, they should be protected, and be permitted to trade, under certain restrictions, with the merchants of Norfolk. The immediate results of these measures were most satisfactory, but produced a jealousy and alarm among certain bands of guerrillas that have since the war occupied the swamps of Currituck and Camden Counties. This feeling increased to that extent, that they were determined to stop the above trade and intercourse with Norfolk; for which purpose a concerted movement was made on the 7th September, and all of the bridges within the above four counties were destroyed. Some of the bridges were rebuilt, and again destroyed, and I resorted to the means indicated in Special Order, marked D, hereunto attached, and required that the bridges should be kept in repair by the...
