Excerpt from The Falsehood of All the Old Christianity, Made Manifest by the Only True Light, in Three Most Important Letters, Emanating From the Temple of the Living God, Zion, in the Eleventh Year of Truth Now it would be cruelty to say to that man, who had given up his own will to be led by God, that in any thing that he did he was doing wrong therefore, if he sleeps he is doing the will of God - or, whether we wake or sleep we are the Lord's for when I was a blasphemer, I was doing right - when I persecuted the Church of God and wasted it, I was doing right. I did not sin when I was disobedient to the heavenly calling - when in Paradise I eat the forbidden fruit, I sinned not. This, perhaps, will appear strange to some to say that Adam did not commit sin when he disobeyed God but he did not, but did the will of God in so doing, as you may plainly read at the bottom of page 44, of The answer of the Lord to the powers of darkness, which reads as follows You will observe that if Satan had never tempted man to fall, man would still be liable to his temptations, whenever he chose to begin during the 6000 years; therefore, infinite wisdom permitted the fall, and secured man from eternal ruin, by preserving the tree of life from his reach, until the fulness of time came, when man is again restored to the image and likeness of his maker - secured from the power of Satan, who will be so bound and chained...
