AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this sequel to the first volume That does not happen every day, Johannes Rath continues to write about the wonderful, strange and unexpected ways of God s dealing in people s lives from his experience as director of Haus des Heils (House of Healing). His own life, as he described in one vignette in the previous volume, and refers to in both volumes in one way or another, is truly a series of miracles. He tells about spiritual, mental and physical healing in the lives of people. These are true stories about repentance, recovery from addictions, marriages made whole again, and God s intervention in the gamut of human failures and afflictions. In all this, Johannes gives credit and glory to JESUS alone. His life s motto is: To God be the glory!.
