She lives in a world of cold blues and greys, in a stone cottage perched on a lonely mountaintop. For beautiful young maiden Eleri, a unique type of happiness can be found in the rhythmic crashing of the waves against the rocks below her home-and the wild, untamed motion of the howling wind. Still, Eleri dreams of something more. She longs for vivid landscapes and boundless adventures-the sights and smells of places beyond her wildest imagination. Upon hearing her pleas, the wind, who loves her, grants Eleri her wish, under the condition that she will become his wife. Whisked away by the wind, she is carried freely through exotic cities, deserts, exciting new realms. But when her journey leads her to a magical palace with everything she could ask for in a new home, Eleri has a difficult decision to make. Will she settle into the land of colour and leave her life of travel behind, or will she embrace her wild spirit and return to the husband who loves her?.
