Green Ivy, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Madge Henson Price has beaten a life changing disease. Cancer. Her father, Ronald has asked his family to assemble in his hospital room to fulfill a request. To deliver a letter of apology to a woman he cared for when stationed in Korea in his youth. Madge accepts the request after brokering a deal with her father to be able to walk away from all of the family and the family business. Something she has been protecting all her life eventhough no one had respected or cared for her in return. Madge in a few weeks discovers truths and lies she never wanted to know. She rediscovers her old self, the strong personality she had become when she was away from family. She finds revelations of true love and the excitements that it can bring, realization of what a loving family can be like and the giving of heart and soul, and what a true friendship can be. Madge learns how to better accept the terror of hate and revenge, not to bury her head in the sand and accept, but to make her own fate. She discovers her destiny is to do what she had thought she really didn t want. Her fate is to right the wrongs of her father and others in the family. To take up the reins of business and make the right decisions for the clans. The only thing that made it acceptable was that she would have the assistance of her soul mate and his willingness to assist her in their joint endeavors. They were to share happily in everything.
