EAST OF CHOSIN ENTRAPMENT AND BREAKOUT IN KOREA, 1950

Texas A&M University. Paperback Condition: New. Roy Applemans East of Chosin, first published in 1987, won acclaim from reviewers, readers, and veterans and their families. For the first time, there was one complete and accessible record of what happened to the army troops trapped east of the Chosin Reservoir during the first wintry blast of the Korean War. Based heavily on the authors interviews and correspondence with the survivors, East of Chosin provided some of those men with their first..
