Sarge, what now? Written and compiled by the son of a World War II infantryman who was awarded the Silver Star, Sarge, What Now? is partly autobiographical, partly historical, often irreverent and sometimes even politically incorrect. Sarge, What Now? honors the seldom understood and often under-appreciated G.I. with their own stories of humor, old scars, past enemies and the brotherhood only shared by those that have been there, done that! They may have served in peace time or in time of war. Their service changed them forever. Whether those changes were positive or negative, good or bad; their lives were never the same again. No one can tell ALL of their stories, I didn t even try. This is just a view of some of those stories...
