Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In a castle on the stark cliffs of Scotland, a comely young maid by the name of Bonny Mae McCree, was wooed by Duke Gregor's handsome young son Gilpatrick. Though, Duke Gregor, who came to realize that she was with child when Gilpatrick was away, secretly married her off to a stable boy, Ewan, who fancied her, sending them both away to Glasgow. Bonny Mae, upon succumbing to complications at birth, caused Ewan to hastily remarry for help in raising the child he named Celsey. As the years passed by, Ewan too, died while Celsey became betrothed to Rowen McTavish. But, tricked by her stepmother for payment to release her wayward stepbrother from debtor's jail, Celsey found herself suddenly kidnapped and indentured for seven years while being sent to America. Though, only on his deathbed does Duke Gregor confess that the childless and recently widowed Gilpatrick has a daughter. From that point on he, along with Rowen, desperately searched worldwide, taking the both of them to America and beyond to find the royal Scottish princess. This novel is a must read for all historical fiction booklovers. Interspersed with courage, resilience, adventure and romance, a young princess and her loved ones must overcome enormous odds for her to return to Scotland to claim her rightful title.
