Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 40 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Excerpt from The O. C. A. Students Annual: May, 1927 Its chief fault is that so few students have contributed and so many of the staff did. Consequently it has a retrospective respectability very unbecoming to a students magazine. It should tell of the doings of students past and present. It should print drawings by students, but not those done in class. It should review current exhibitions and publish poems. It should smash through some of the existing lethargy in the College and encourage an outward expression of an inward interest in Art and Life. It might with care become the one little magazine in the whole Dominion that is concerned with beautiful production in Book decoration, lettering, design and other fine Arts. Canada needs such a magazine and many a student would learn to cut his wisdom teeth in the world of the published drawing, poem, or article by seeing it in print. But alas, here it is. It should demand your sympathy, but it only pleads for your affection. Forget its paucity of wit and its ponderous stride and buy it graciously and induce others to do likewise. The advertisers are gallant, adventurous souls. Give them of your bounty. They are highly commended. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
