This blow has fallen upon the Zionist Organization and the Jewish people with crushing weight. Since the Eleventh Congress Dr. J. W. Tschlenow was Vice-president of the Executive Committee of our Organization. The unlimited confidence of the whole Organization called the leader of Russian Zionism to this post. There was urgent need of fixing the lines upon which to conduct the Zionist work, of powerfully developing the Organization, giving a new, strong impulse to the work in Palestine, and building up the political work on the grand scale which its world-historical importance demanded. Dr. J. W. Tschlenow, to whose indefatigable, systematic labour the greatest successes of Russian Zionism are due, reluctantly obeyed the call of the Organization, filled as he was with the consciousness of a mighty responsibility. In his new post he fulfilled the highest expectations - until the war broke out and caused him to return to Russia.
