Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from 1896, Norfolk, Va;, Port and City: Facts and Figures of Its Trade, Commerce and Manufactures Beyond question, Norfolk, with its splendid harbor, is a point to which a great many eyes are turned in these days. Its nearness to the ocean, deep water, unobstructed by bars, or ice in the coldest winter, climatic conditions made favorable by proximity to the gulf stream, never experiencing frigid or torrid extremes, neither blizzards, cyclones or hurricanes to endanger persons or property, nor destructive to shipping which may ride at anchor absolutely secure from disaster, has, and is attracting the attention of this, and foreign nations as well, to the unlimited facilities at hand for accommodating the trade and commerce of the world, in this port. The purpose of this book, therefore, is to supplement the facts and figures heretofore issued, and present in these pages the story of growth and development in lines, which should interest every one seeking a home for improvement in comfort, health or the acquisition of wealth, in the field which is a most inviting one. To enable the reader to take in at a glance a few leading points about Norfolk, the following condensed matter is given as a preface to the work: Norfolk is distinguished among American cities for its Cotton, Lumber, Truck, Coal, Oyster, Fish and Peanut trades. For its Foreign and Coastwise traffic, its Navy-Yard and Seaside Resorts. And for its history. It was founded in 1680. Besieged and burnt in the Revolutionary War. Besieged in the War of 1812, and the Civil War. And was-the scene of the Monitor and Merrimac encounter in 1862. It is in Latitude 37 degrees north and Longitude...
