Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Chase Richards had it all: money, fame, a big house, fast cars, and women standing in line to have sex with him. But most of all, he had a promising career as an NFL quarterback, that is until his world comes crashing down the night he gets drunk and slams his Porsche into a tree. Chase was lucky to be alive. He escaped death, but his right arm - the arm he threw all those touchdowns with - was broken in six places. Like Humpty Dumpty, the doctors could put Chase back together again, but his arm - and his life -- would never be the same. Mollie Carter had loved Chase Richards from the moment they high school. He was the budding football star and she was the head of the yearbook committee. They couldn't have been more different. Maybe that's what made their attraction so strong. No one would have imagined they would ever part; least of all Mollie. Then, Chase is drafted into the NFL and everything changed. Mollie never saw Chase again after he went off to training camp. He broke up with her over the phone a few months later. Now, two years later, Mollie learns that Chase has been in a horrible wreck and is barely clinging to life. As she looks down at the beautiful little boy sleeping in her arms, she wonders if she will ever see Chase again. Then Mollie hears that Chase is coming home, a broken man with no money or prospects. What will Chase do when he learns that he has a son by the only girl he's ever loved? And will Mollie be...
