THE URBAN (IN)SECURITY PARADOX IN UGANDA

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | The Case of Kampala City | This book uncovers a myriad of competing perceptions and different feelings about (in)security in Uganda's capital; Kampala city. The aforementioned are described as the urban (in)security paradox. The paradoxes range from whether the state's security forces are a source of security or insecurity, whether Kampala is secure or insecure to the inseparable nature of state politics and security. The book locates the urban (in)security paradox in..
