

God, Science and Faith: Is There a God or Is He Just a Figment of Our Imagination? (Paperback)

By John Wells

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is your chance to be judge and juror of a controversial subject. I m sure that most of us will have gazed up at the night sky and wondered how the moon, planets and stars actually got there, knowing that according to science, some of them are so far away that their light may have taken millions, if not billions, of years to reach us. Similarly, I m sure that most of us have at sometime asked ourselves that most basic of questions as to why we are actually here. Are we the result of a freak accident of nature and that as individuals, we are no more than a complex combination of atoms and molecules which were created in the vast nuclear furnaces of the stars? Perhaps we were created by a loving God to live our lives here on Earth before spending eternity with Him in heaven? Maybe the concept of God is just a myth which has been passed down through successive generations right up to and including the present day. If you search the shelves...
