

I Miss You All Day All Week (Paperback)

By Konnilaree Walker Sanders

Stories by Mom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. New Trim Size, Text Correction ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I Miss You All Day All Week is a story that combines the difficult emotions of separation anxiety with a child's whimsical imagination to create a fun way to cope with her fears of saying goodbye. The story begins with a sleepless Abigail. She is very worried that she is going to miss her father when he leaves for work in the early morning. They play a game where they imagine the fun adventures they will have when the weekend does come. Their adventures span from staying home to cuddle to a road trip adventure to catch Big-Foot. The following morning, after a heartwarming goodbye, she finds out that she can handle the day. Soon enough they re together again and ready for a real adventure, because it's the weekend. This book is showing the special bond between a father and daughter at the same time showing a child a way of managing their emotions and discovering a way to have fun despite life's disruptions.
