Christ made this reality possible as the first-fruit of creation. Jesus is the Firstborn, from the dead, of many sons. He opened the way for us to be the "sons of God."As Christs disciples, men and women are Gods children and brothers of Christ. Whether man or woman, we are all "sons of God"(Gal. 3.26; Rom. 8.14). Being a "son of God" is a glorious truth!David Alves illustrates how God has worked in his life and can work in yours. Fully referenced with scripture, Alves outlines a seven-point checklist to facilitate spiritual maturity in you. By assimilating the checklist, you can adopt the right mental and heart environment to become all that God has called you to be. Youll also experience Gods deep and abiding love and discover how being a "son of God" affects your life today and determines your future.Sprinkled with anecdotes, Were the "sons of God" So What? explores the perplexities Christians experience in life. With diligent discipleship, you will find comfort and guidance in the Bible and move higher toward your heavenly calling.
