Graywolf Press,U.S., United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Who was that stranger beside me? Please forgive me for insisting It must have been a dream. No one could survive such happiness. --from [Untitled] The Lyrics by Fanny Howe records the days of one seeking knowledge through movement and contingent images--a monastery, a motel, an Irish coastal river--all the while conscious of political and class warfare, of being American, of the need to know the difference (if there is one) between good and evil. Each poem is a lament formed in a place of rest, asking: Can we get beyond this and still be? The Lyrics is the newest work of an intense and vital poet.
