RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 52 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)49378390 Subject: Children of working parents -- United States. Excerpt: . . . who live in poverty: steady growth, less education, and lower earnings. Sadly, the number of people who live in poverty, who suffer from hunger or food insecurity number more than 4 million or more children and many millions of adults and seniors. Indeed, Mr. Chairman, these are serious issues that affect all Americans, and I thank you for this hearing. I look forward to hearing the witnesses who have come. Chairman Nussle. Thank you. I ask unanimous consent that all the members be given 7 days to submit statements for the record. Without objection, so ordered. The prepared statement of Mr. Matheson follows: Prepared Statement of Hon. Jim Matheson, a Representative in Congress From the State of Utah Chairman Nussle, Mr. Spratt, members of the committee. I am very pleased that the committee has decided to take up this important topic today. Too often I am afraid that our hearings are not focused on the true plights of those we represent. We talk about a lot of important issues, but often without relevance to the day-to-day lives of working Americans. This hearing is about those day-to-day lives. The challenges that face the working poor in this country continue to be immense despite years of economic growth and even declining welfare roles. Many Americans are still struggling to make ends meet. Understanding the core sources of those struggles, is essential for Congress to act in one of its most important roles, as a steward over the public welfare. In preparation for this hearing, I have spent some time trying to understand something about the working poor that live in my home state...
